Dear Dan,

Pending review of the specific documents, Marvell is willing to agree to stipulate the Sony documents are authentic and that they are business records. Marvell is expressly not agreeing to the admissibility of these documents and reserves its right to move to exclude their admission into evidence.

Please send us a draft of the stipulation including the Bates numbers of the documents you would like to be subject to the stipulation.

Regards,

Warren

Warren,

To be clear we asked for stipulations as to authenticity and that they are business records. We are not asking that any other objection, such a relevancy be waived. The issues that involve Sony are authenticity and business records which would be the subject of a deposition. Any other objections would be preserved.

Thanks, Warren. But absent a stipulation these are business records and therefore admissible, this does not resolve the issue.
Please reconsider.

Dear Dan,?? ??

Marvell is amenable to stipulating to authentication of a reasonable number of documents. Please provide a list of which Sony documents you are requesting be stipulated as authentic.?? ??

With respect to your earlier request regarding admissibility of the Sony documents, Marvell will not agree to stipulate to admissibility of these documents and reserves its right to move to exclude.?? ??

Regards,?? ??

Warren,

Any word from your client on this. It seems a waste of time and money given that these are all publicly available documents.
